Subj: NAVAL INTELLIGENCE ANNUAL HISTORY PROGRAM

Ref: (a) DNI Memo, subj as above, serial 009/5U365524
dated 01 February 1985

Encl: (1) CINCUSNAVEUR (N-2) Annual Command History Input 1984

1. Enclosure (1) is forwarded in accordance with reference (a).

Very respectfully,

A.R. WILE, Jr.
Deputy Chief of Staff
for Intelligence

CINCUSNAVEUF N-2
ANNUAL COMMAND HISTORY INPUT 1984

1. [REDACTED] HIGHLIGHTS. Intelligence Division (N-2) support to operating forces included [REDACTED] summaries of significant Soviet/Eastern Bloc maritime movements in the Mediterranean and the eastern Atlantic, [REDACTED]. The Fleet Ocean Surveillance Information Center (FOSIC) [REDACTED] provided tailored maritime intelligence support to [REDACTED] ships operating and exercising in the same areas.

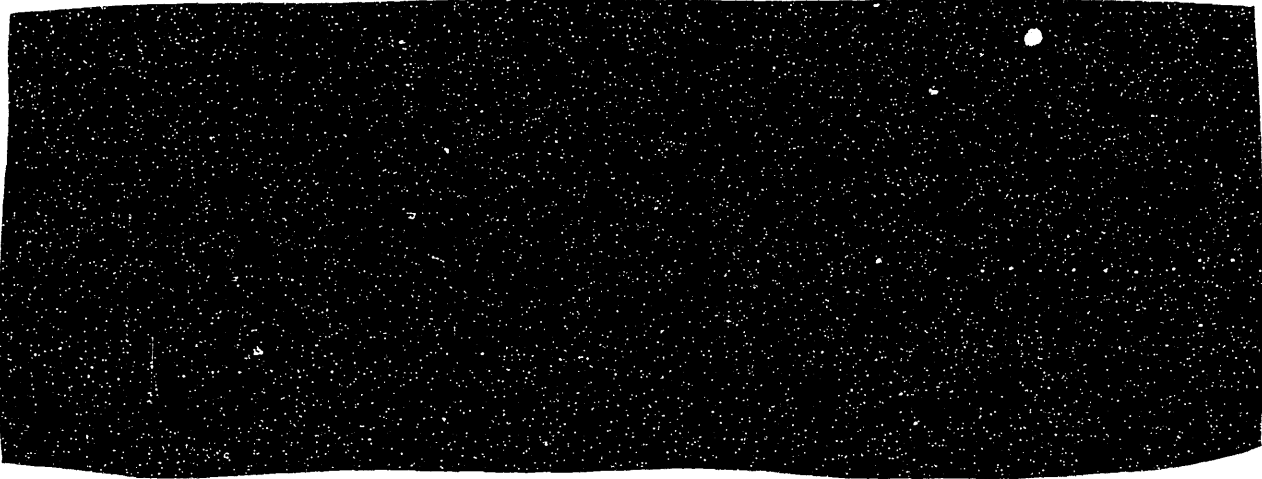

5. (U) BRITISH LIAISON. CDR R. P. BORCIK, N-2 Special Assistant for Intelligence Liaison, represented CINCUSNAVEUR at CINCFLEET Headquarters, Northwood, England. CDR Borcik assisted the Royal Navy in planning for, acquiring and operating U.S. OSIS hardware in the Joint (Royal Navy/Royal Air Force) Ocean Surveillance Information Center (JOSIC), Northwood.

6. (U) VISITORS. U.S. intelligence community visitors to N-2 included: RADM JOHN L. BUTTS, Director of Naval Intelligence; COMO C. F. HOFFMAN, Commander, Naval Intelligence Command; VADM EDWARD A. BURKHALTER, JR., Director of the Intelligence Community Staff; RADM D. H. MCDOWELL, Commander, Naval Security Group; COMO R. P. ILG, Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations, Plans, and Intelligence, SACLANC; [REDACTED] and BG E. J. HEINZ, Director of Intelligence, USEUCOM. Additionally, U.S. defense and naval attaches in the CINCUSNAVEUR area of responsibility made regular working level visits to the N-2 organization. Foreign distinguished visitors included Deputy Chief of the British Defence Staff, Air Marshall SIR MICHAEL ARMITAGE, RAF;

CONFIDENTIAL BY CLASSIFICATION

Britain's Flag Officer First Flotilla, Rear Admiral ROBIN HOGG; Israel's Director of Naval Intelligence, Captain ABRAHAM ASHUR; Netherlands Director of Military Intelligence, Captain S. Van Iersinga; Spain's Director of Naval Intelligence, Captain ARENOSA; Chief of the Intelligence Staff of the NATO Military Committee, Rear Admiral HANS-FRIEDRICH MEISNER of the Federal Republic of Germany; Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, SHAPE, RADM J. RODOCANACHI of Canada.

7. COMPUTER SECURITY. Security of the computer systems which support the Ocean Surveillance Information System (OSIS) continued as an important issue through 1984. Difficulties posed by the interconnection of data base, word processing, and communications subsystems resulted in modification of OSIS operations at CINCUSNAVEUR and intense scrutiny of the system worldwide.

9. (U) KEY PERSONNEL CHANGES. CAPT Donn T. Burrows was relieved as Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence by CAPT Alan R. Wile, Jr., in September. In July, CAPT Kenneth G. Robison was relieved as N2A by CAPT Steven C. Albers. CDR Michael W. Cramer was relieved as Officer on Charge, FOSIC, by CDR Jack A. Lautenschlager, in May.
